

PENANG STATE MUSEUM

Penang State Museum was established in 1964 and became a State Statutory Body whereby it was named Penang State Museum Board in the year 1972. Penang State Museum Board is a non-profit organisation to collect, study, preserve and showcases state and cultural heritage by promoting through informal education. Our vision is to cultivate the interest of appreciation of the state's heritage and culture for the present and future generations. Penang State Museum Board aims to collect objects with value of heritage and history of art, implementing conservation work on the collection, conducting research for the purpose of education as well as serving as a tourism destination. Penang State Museum now owns more than 2,500 collections of artefacts & historical painting, dated from as early as 1880s. And Penang State Art Gallery (PSAG) located at Dewan Sri Pinang owns more than 1,500 comprehensive collections devoted to pioneer and contemporary artists.
