

CAMPBELL HOUSE

Offering 12 unique and luxurious rooms, Campbell House sits handsomely in a corner 1903 shophouse within the UNESCO heritage city centre of George Town, Penang, a perfect location for exploring the history, arts and food trails. A new breed of boutique hotel where the fundamental attributes are innovative, sophisticated with authentic style. Priding ourselves in personalised emphatic essential service that makes each guest feel special, we aim to offer an experience with lasting memories. Penang has a rich melting pot of culture and heritage which is transpired in the decor of each individual room, an eclectic mix of old world charm with modern amenities. An onsite Italian restaurant adds to the authenticity of the owner's personalities and background of east meets west.
