

CHEAH KONGSI (SEH TEK TONG CHEAH KONGSI)

Seh Tek Tong Cheah Kongsi is located in the core zone of George Town, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, Penang. Cheah Kongsi was established in 1810, by its clansmen from Sek Tong Village in district of Sam Tor, Hai Teng Quan, Cheang Chew Prefecture in the Province of Fukien, China. Cheah Kongsi building is a mixed of traditional Straits Chinese and European architecture which include additions of British lion heads and fascade of hokkien origins. Cheah Kongsi is traditionally a place for the Cheah clans to congregate annually during the Winter Solstice Festival and meetings for more than 150 years. It is the first clan house to set up an Interpretation Center not only in Penang but also Malaysia. As one of the oldest clan house in Penang, you will indulge yourself in the vast heritage history and culture of Penang. Cheah Kongsi scenery during daytime and nightime lightings make us suitable for 24-hours events.
